High Rents in New York.

A New York flat of six not very dious rooms, two of which are dark, rents for $2,400. The cost of the building with the land is set at $250,000, and it is rented to twentyone families, paying aggregate rent to the amount of $92,400. But the building stands on Broadway, and the ele-vator is lined with blue satin, and he elevator boy speaks French and

An Enormous Business Statistics of business done in one of the best known general shopping places in Paris indicates an enormo trade. For the week which began on that day they reached a total of 400,000f. more than for the week before.

How They Settled It.

One intoxicated man said it was a bundle of rags that lay on a window sill two hundred yards away, at Austin, Texas, and his companion said it was a woman's head. They made a bet and decided it by shooting at the object; but neither won, for it was a boy's head which the bullet grazed.

Carrying Pistols.

So many seized pistols have accumulated in the Memphis, Tenu., court that Judge Horrigan has issued an order directing the clerk to throw all, except army and navy pistols, that have been in his hands more than six months, into the Mississippi river, and into such deep water that they cannot be fished out.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Journal seems to be working around to the proposition that railroads are a detriment to the country. So far as it has gone in that direction it has met with a very boisterous response from a scanty few hereabouts, and it imagines it has struck something new. We would remind our Reno obstructionists that there have been fogies in all ages and they never could learn anything, so that argument was lost. It is fifty years too late to argue against the locomotive. Railroads will be built, and those without brains and enterprise to 16th, the Judge ordering the Warden profit by the changes made will get of the prison to treat his prisoner as Anxious to make it all that could be desired for a family newspaper, we have continually studied where any change could be made in the WEFKLY GAZETTE for the better. The latest improvement is to add an inch and a half to the length of the columns, thus reducing the margin and increasing the reading matter contained by three or four columns. The change gives the paper a metropolitan ap- of news. Se far, the President has was represented to the Department, ty we hope.

The virtuous Democracy that could never think of Ben Butler without dishing him up some "spoon" victuals, has been compelled to nominate Butler's choice for mayor of Boston. With Butler in Massachusetts, Kelly in New York, Mahone in Virginia Toombs in Georgis and Kalloch in California, the sad-eyed and hungry Democracy may safely predict a continuance of the famine.

Tribune's Washington speci sys: MacVeagh has been ab from Washington about three weeks, luring which time the star route people and their newspaper have be pretending to know that he had run om the star route trials, in spite of the 'President's most urgent request to remain, and they have waxed hilarious over the extraordinary spectacle MacVeagh has maintained a contempt uons silence meanwhile, and it is proper new to say that when he left Washington the President not only had knowledge of his purpose, but had pledged himself to send to the Senate MacVeagh's successor on the next day. The place was tendered to Frelinghuysen, who declined. That is the only reason why MacVengh's resignation was not sooner accepted. The White-Holden Prize Fight. BUFFALO, N. Y., November 15.

WASHINGTON, November 15. In the speech which Guiteau had prepared for delivery in Court to.day, he says he is charged with murdering one James A. Garfield. Nothing can be more absurd, because General Garfield died of malpractice. General Garfield was a good man but a weak politician. Being President he was in a position to do wast harm to the Republic, and he was doing it by the unwise use of patronage, and the Lord and himself took the responsibilty of removing him; that his duty to the Lord and the American people overcame his personal feelings towards General Garfield, and he sought to remove him. Not being a marksman General Garfield was not fatally shot but incompetent physicians finished the work, and they, and not nimself, are responsible for his death. He then speaks of the breech in the Republican party and his reclaims that the Deity ordered him to fire the shot. He refers to his work on theology, insanity in his family, his married life and his life in prison, and appeals to those whom he says he has put in position, and to the general public, to send him money for his Gambetta's Policy.

Paris, November 15. The new Ministers held a council to-day when a declaration of the policy to be made by Gambetta at the opening of the Chamber of deputies on Tuesday was drawn up and approved. The declaration it is under tood contains pacific assurances in regard to the foreign policy, declares the necessity of revising the mode of electing Senators, and advocates the introduction Senetin de liste. It is expected that Count de Sainte Fallier, French Ambassador at Berlin will be replaced. It is stated that if the change be made, it will be due to the influence of Bismarck, who, it is asserted, has made representations unfavorable to Count Fallier.

The Jews in Russia.

St. Petersburg, November 15. The Finland Diet has appointed ommissioners to consider the question of the influence of the Jews on that province and in being permitted to reside there. In the commission attached to the Ministry of the Interior they mitigated the penalties of 300 out of 1,200 to Siberian exile.

Bismarck and Gambetta

Paris, November 15. General Chansey, while in Berlin, nterviewed Bismarck. King then put the pistol down and was folding up the check, when Stevenson quick as a flash, snatched up Kerry's weapon, drewa bead and forced Kerry to hand back the check.

The mare cost $40, saddle and bridle. The mare to harness. I traded said mare for a balky horse. I broke the horse to work and sold him for $140. That money I paid Lee for the mare. The harness that she speaks of I never paid McGies a dollars worth of hay towards. I did order a single harness for Mrs. Pine. Paid for it in harness was got Joe Wells. When the single harness was got I bought a pair of shafts for my buggy so that she could drive the chestnut mare. The mare was taken lame so that she could not be driven. The buggy I paid Clark for out of posts that I sold a pair of exen for. The oxen I got for a brown mare which Mr. Longley now owns, or did own. Of this mare Mrs. Pine never owned a hair. I never told any person that I hadu't anything at the time we traded for the ranch over $1,300. I also had no es that I sold a toll road for $1,300. The notes were paid to me in coin afterwards, and as to the jack horse and colt. 00. The notes were paid to me in gentleman in him, that he could have fou business of his own to attend to with putting himself into other people's affail especially family aff-irs. I think the biling for him is to bag his head, at least ur he can tell the truth. I think all such peo-are anything but gentlemen. Now, as for are anything but gentlemen. Now, as for i chestnut sorrel maie, I never denied that swas bought for Mrs. Pine, but I de say it $40 was all of her individual money in the baiance was company. The colts, s can seil her part any time she chooses, but shall hold possession of them until I have chance to sell. I will here rectify one mitake that I made as to the time we acparate I intended to put it ist of March instead April; and as for truth, I think I stand well as my opponent where I am known.

The celebrated Hillyer modifying order which allowed the Wheeler faction to vote an alleged illegal issue of stock in the Nevada and Oregon Railroad Company, has been vacated by Judge Sawyer. The case will come up next on the prayer of the complaint in the injunction case, which asks that the issue of 50,000 shares by the Wheeler faction to themselves be declared null and void. It is held that the vacating of this order endorses and makes binding the election held by the Moore faction on September 27. The Circuit Court has adjourned until the second Monday in January.

An Appailing Fact.

Mrs. Lucy Stone Blackwell talks plainly to the ladies. She says the waste of time, the waste of strength and the waste of health which women accept on account of wealth is appailing. The shoes of women have pegs for heels, half way under the foot, on which they walk with a tottening hobbling gait, like Chinese women. Frills, fringes, cords, strape, buttons, pullbacks and flounces, supposed to be ornamental, but which have no other use, burden and deform even our young girls. If the rising generates other use, burden and deform even our young girls. If the rising generation is to be healthy, there must be a return to the simpler, as well as more becoming, styles. We need artists who can devise simple and beautiful dresses, which shall secure to the wearer the free and untrammeled use of the whole body.
